This book usually ship within 10-15 business days and we will endeavor to dispatch orders quicker than this where possible. Brand New Book. Excerpt from A Game at Love: And Other Plays I have taken the climacteric moments of imaginary novels and have embodied them in dramatic sketches. This method constitutes a rebellion against that species of psychological fiction which, in six hundred pages, succeeds in telling us nothing. For as intellectual intercourse between nations becomes more intimate, and the body of literature of each country is augmented by that of the others, it will inevitably become a requirement that the individual work of art shall be diminished in bulk. Homer could write a poem in twenty-four books with impunity. Not so the modern artist. Nor is there any legitimate reason why we should take up twice twenty-four hours of a reader's time with a story that could be told no less effectively in ten minutes. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at This book is a reproduction of an important...
