Example: If your work-rooms are not properly ventilated your employees cannot do efficient work. You lose money as a result, because you lose service. 187. When one sentence makes a statement contrasting with a preceding sentence, such relation should be shown by some connective, such as but, nevertheless, on the other hand, and so on. Example: Our orders at first will be tentative. In a very short time, however, we shall be in a position to gauge the demand and frame our orders accordingly. 188. Connection between sentences can be secured by the use of demonstratives (this, that, etc.), pronouns (he, it, they, etc.), and by repetition. Example: As a solution of the problem of foul air, we suggest our electric suction fan. It will...
