By Athena C Shack

Watersprings Media House, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Through the darkness of her life after her husband s suicide, Athena C. Shack embarked on a journey to healing, wholeness and restoration. In this book, she answers the one question asked the most from others who are hurting: How do you get your life back after a tragedy, trauma or loss has compromised your faith, destroyed your peace and shaken your confidence in God? Using personal experience, biblical illustrations/revelations with an engaging and refreshing writing style this book will help you get through a dark place and grow spiritually from it. Grace for the Journey will help you navigate: Your Place - Where you feel like no one understands what you are going through since your life has been turned upside down after the unthinkable happened to you. Your Journey - While you are walking through turbulent terrain, challenged by the detours of life, you will be determined to fight your way back, discovering your purpose through your pain. Your New Life - Victory for your life is in the plan of God and you shall walk back into the land of..
