

Inflammatory Breast Cancer: Explanation, Advice, Support

By Verite Reily Collins

Anshan Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Inflammatory Breast Cancer: Explanation, Advice, Support, Verite Reily Collins, Inflammatory Breast Cancer (IBC) is a highly aggressive and thankfully rare type of breast cancer, which is not yet widely recognised both by the public and the medical profession. When a patient presents to her GP, there is often a misdiagnosis in the first instance. This is because the symptoms include swelling, redness and heat in the breast, but often no discernible lump. Consequently the condition may be only diagnosed as a less serious dermatological problem. The author is herself a survivor of breast cancer and can therefore write with expert knowledge and experience. She discusses with compassion, insight and humour everything a person ought to know about IBC - the patient's initial fears, the diagnosis, best place for treatment, the operation itself, and post-op care. She discusses the different forms of treatment, and also the side issues - where to find support from carers and friends, what to eat, how/where to go on holiday. It is a valuable resource of information both for the patient and the professionals involved. Of course the book also tackles the scientific and medical issues and the...
