Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The order of the universe is seemingly reversed, but then everything happens as it should, and the kiss somehow remains a part of it all. That kiss led to her birth, to her immortal heart beating within her mortal body. Her love is here, in and out of time. The mirrors in her eyes slowly begin to dissolve and the images continue to reveal a world divided by love and war. One eye reveals love while the other reveals hate. But then the mirrors seem to converge. She lies frozen, a statue, her heart longing to break free. Her body is trapped in time, her heart on the verge of beautiful release, breaking free. In a single breathless moment, her love yearns for release and finds it. Time, the frame of her shining marble physique, breaks and dissolves all around her heart, which gives flesh to her love, a skin that imbibes the fragrance of her existence. Her flesh regains the color of life and passion, and her eyes shine like the crystalline sky. Her hair radiates like the self-sustained ball of fire of the sun, the center of her beauty s universe, which perpetuates itself along with the emotions orbiting around it. In the quiet passion of the statue s muddy decay, the human form breathes, loudly declaring its existence by inhaling the same beauty it projects outward, and breathes again, as if beauty were a form of inhaling the air of life. The marble sheet that covered her body fades away like shadows that are chased by sunlight. Her breath is the breath of beauty, releasing her senses, which permeate the space beyond the boundary of everything she...
