LOVE AND MARRIAGE. i HERE is nothing of greater interest to all classes of people, in all times of life, than Love and Marriage questions--because all people are affected, directly or indirectly, either by their own, by those with whom they are associated in every day relations, or by the ties of consanguinity. And yet there is nothing that society meddles with so much in an unhealthful manner, thus preventing clear and dignified thought and action in a healthy direction. The affections need cultivating, guarding and guiding. It would be sophistry, to say that anger, malice, revenge, or any of the socalled unamiable traits of character, should be allowed to be exercised without reason to restrain them, on the ground of naturalness; and yet there is a class of people who openly, --and a still larger class who...

The most effective publication i at any time go through. This is certainly for all those who statte that there had not been a worthy of looking at. Its been printed in an extremely straightforward way which is merely soon after i finished reading this publication where basically changed me, change the way in my opinion.
