

Slave Ship (Paperback)

By Benjamin Schultze

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Slave Ship is a satire of globalization at its worst. Summitt Industries, one of the leaders in ammunition manufacturing, has revolutionized mass production by converting a nuclear aircraft carrier into a commercial ammunitions factory called the Summitt Global Employment Ship. The Summitt Global Employment Ship sails the world exploiting cheap labor, flouting all laws, and making massive profits for investors. And then a gang of child laborers from St. Campo, led by fourteen year old Gabriel, make a stand and take control of the ship. Are they crazed terrorists? Extremists? Or do they just want to go back home?.
