Savannah s divorce isn t even final but she is looking for something to shake up her newly single world. At the bar one night, she approaches a very attractive man who is dressed in expensive clothing. She thought she was only getting one night with the elusive Vincent but she is getting a hell of a lot more. Not only is Vincent submerging himself into her life, he s keeping secrets that are about to explode and could kill her. Vincent knows a lot of people and he is feared by a lot of them but he wants Savannah. To him, Savannah is a breath of fresh air and he wants to keep a hold of her no matter what. Their romance attracts many things and danger is one of them. Being together could lead to one of them getting very hurt or even dead. Savannah now knows a whole lot more than she should, is she better off without Vincent or with him? Vincent knows that he is going to drag her down with him but he can t let go of her. Until one day when he is faced with the ultimate decision. Is keeping her worth her dying? And if he gets rid of her, would she hate him?.
