Betimes Books, Ireland, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Key West, 1925: the USA s southernmost point and the most un-American of American locales; a rowdy border town surrounded by water and populated by sports fishermen, naval veterans and Cuban revolutionists - misfits and mavericks, all. After several years abroad, crime writer Hector Lassiter arrives on Bone Key to reunite with his lost love Brinke Devlin, a fellow author and the woman destined to become the first Mrs. Lassiter. Hector finds an island in turmoil - beset by fatal fires and savage attacks against women that the local press attributes to a baseball bat-wielding fiend dubbed The Key West Clubber. When one of the Clubber s murders hits too close to home, the newlyweds begin to poke around the crimes. What they find casts doubt on the possibility of a single culprit. By turns sexy, sly and sinister, Forever s Just Pretend barrels along at a page-turning pace to a shattering conclusion that casts new light on Hector Lassiter and his legend. I loved Brinke Devlin the first time she came on the page and I loved her at the end, too. She s a fascinating character. -James Sallis, author of DRIVE.
