Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Divorcee Jasmine Mistry longs to restart her life when a call from the past brings her home to Shelter Island, a green dot in the middle of Puget Sound, to run her beloved aunt s bookstore. The familiarity warms her heart-rocky beaches, pewter skies, and Auntie s Bookstore, nestled in a quaint Queen Anne Victorian, and believed, not incidentally, to be haunted. With that knowledge, Jasmine embarks upon a mystical journey, guided by the highly emotional spirits of long-dead authors, and moved to heal her broken heart when she unexpectedly falls in love with an enigmatic young stranger who blurs the boundaries between reality and illusion, truth and fantasy. In redefining the meaning of everlasting love, he urges Jasmine to reinvent herself in a place she calls home. All she has to do is close her eyes and say yes.
