His youthful days were spent at work upon a farm. At twenty years of age, with such education as he had obtained from the opportunities offered him, together with his naturally keen intellect, he determined upon the study of law, and in the year 1845 entered the law office of Wheaton, Doolittle & Hadley at Albany. He was admitted to the bar in 1848 and sought a field for his professional labors at Port Washington, -vis., the same year. He was married to Miss Jane Lathrop at Albany in 1850. He arrived in California July 12, 1852, and joined his brother in the mining business at Michigan Bluff, Placer County, where he carried on a successful business for four years. In 1856 he moved to Sacramento and entered into the mercantile business with his brothers. Here Mr. Stanford displayed the natural aptitude of his mind for the administration...
