By Mason, Conrad

David Fickling Books, 2012. Hardcover. Condition: New. Dust Jacket Condition: New. 1st Edition. The Demon Watch is Conrad Mason's debut novel. It's a fast-paced fantastical adventure story full of magic, pirates and skulduggery. It's the first of a trilogy, and he's now busy writing book two. Doodled Books can easily envisage that every book collector in the universe will want a book, especially as it has been likened to Terry Pratchett and has been published by the famous Random House! In fact you always know when illustrator David Wyatt designs the front cover that a book is going somewhere. We are sure we are going to hear huge things about this trilogy! Here's some information about the book: Captain Newton and his men keep watch over Port Fayt, where humans live in peace alongside trolls, elves and fairies. They've always kept the town safe from pirates and smugglers. But now Fayt is under threat from a much more powerful enemy - the League of the Light, who have sworn to destroy all non-humans. And to make matters worse, a dangerous witch has just arrived in town... Half-goblin boy Joseph Grubb works in his uncle's tavern, the Legless...
