Hitchcock Lake Publications, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Revised Version for Easy Trave ed.. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . A STORM IS COMING AND HER NAME IS AMANDA! Death came for Amanda Reynolds, but could not pry her from her home. Her spirit remained and for the next two decades, the abandoned mansion decayed but not Amanda s room. When Katie Jarvis and her teammates enter the room, they discover an environment that is perfect in virtually every way. Under the guidance of their professor, world-renowned physicist Bertrand Myers, Katie, Chris, Drew, and Tess research the room s environment only to learn that it defies any natural explanation. When Katie discovers that the room also affects the weather for miles around, the team delves into the house s history, only to have each of them targeted for disaster. Through it all, Katie believes that Amanda still inhabits the room and is convinced that Amanda is using the weather in a desperate attempt to communicate something, but neither she nor her team can decipher what or why. Bert cautions that if Amanda possesses that kind of power, no one on earth is safe. However, when a monstrous late-season hurricane traps him and thousands of others on Cape Cod, Katie realizes that only she can stop Amanda before it s too late. What she does not realize, is that something is still out to stop her. Chuck Miceli combines his criminal justice background and fascination for severe weather in his acclaimed supernatural novel, Amanda s Room. Part mystery, part thriller, Miceli s novel merges details from his experiences in prisons and jails with facts about severe weather and violent storms. Then he adds his own mix of paranormal coincidences to act as a catalyst for this supernatural...
