At the boarding school in Eisenach, Martin and his friends had to sing for their supper. Martin spent a lot of time thinking about how to get to heaven - he thought that he had to pray for hours on end, eat very little, work very hard and study a great many good books, in order to have his sins forgiven. However, as he began to read God s Word for himself, he discovered that the answer was not in doing these things, but by putting his trust in the Lord Jesus Christ.
