Excerpt from The Fifteenth Annual Report of the Trustees With the List of Members for the Year Ending December 31, 1890 A review of the twelve months Shows that while substantial progress has been made, the Institution has not been able to meet all the demands for the extension of its usefulness because of lack of funds. Nevertheless, in some respects its financial position is better than ever before. The floating debt has been cancelled. A bequest of from Geo. S. Pepper, Esq., who generously remembered SO many Philadelphia institutions in his will, has been received from his executors. The terms of the bequest are that the income only shall be used for the purposes of the Institution. The principal sum, therefore, has been added to the Endowment Fund.
