SIMON SCHUSTER, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. The eagerly anticipated sequel to William Fredrick Cooper s wildly acclaimed debut novel, Six Days in January, is a powerful, heartfelt tale that will resonate with readers everywhere. In Six Days in January, William Fredrick Cooper shed light on the insecurities and fears of African-American men through the experiences of his enigmatic protagonist William McCall. As There s Always a Reason opens, William has experienced another emotional heartbreak at the hands of a woman. When he loses his job, too, William finds himself battling just to survive. Then he meets Linda Woodson, who begins to restore his faith in all areas of life, illustrating through example that a woman of enormous strength can teach a man the true meaning of love. There s Always a Reason is an uplifting and emotional journey into the complex workings of the human heart and its ability to triumph over despair.
