These 40 features are guaranteed to delight, challenge, and enlighten. Video games A team of programmers and designers worked on an informal sequel to a popular video game for years and, at the eleventh hour, were blocked from releasing it. A software firms chief navigates her way through group dynamics and physics engines in pursuit of releasing a great game. Journey is an odd and beautiful still point among Internet-connected multiplayer games. A new species has emerged in the living room; what can we learn from him How competitive Tetris players approach an unwinnable game. Play That cosplay looks pretty serious. A group performs an episode of a popular sci-fi show each summer in the park -- a five-year mission. A mild-mannered magazine editor dons a costume each night as she assumes a secret identity. A decade after the book Moneyball, baseball changed, but so-called pundits remain in the past. Pinball has become wizard again. iOSs impact on those with impairments is profound. Culture An Alaskan chanteuse becomes a modern troubadour (troubairitz, actually) with the help of patrons. Please, tell me about your food blog. Better yet, dont. In Eastern Washington, a small town tries to build a giant version of a lava lamp. If they build it, will anyone come She makes her own dresses, and fashions answers to the questions they provoke out of whole cloth. She transports four kids, the shopping, and beehives by cargo bike in the Netherlands. After lathering up, he makes swift, precise cuts. Then the notion that they might want a smaller home stunned the neighbors. Dwindling nudist colonies have trouble finding new members. New tech from old Polaroid shook itself out of existence, but an Impossible Project has revived its instant film. Pinhole cameras predate...
