

For the Love of David (Paperback)

By Laurel Bradley

Laurel Bradley, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . FINDERS KEEPERS. Marissa Fleming isn't ready for motherhood when an unplanned pregnancy changes everything. She can't bring herself to tell her parents, friends or boyfriend. Not knowing what to do, she does nothing until she gives birth in her college dorm. Then there's another problem: what to do with the baby? Libby Armstrong is sad and lonely, with no direction in life, until one morning she discovers an abandoned newborn boy outside a supermarket. She decides to keep him, telling everyone he is hers, that she didn't know she was pregnant. Lie upon lie. But Baby David is worth it. His presence gives her the joy she'd been missing. But Marissa can't get her baby out of her head. She's obsessed with finding him. When her path crosses Libby's, she steals him and runs. But is she prepared for what it takes to provide for herself and the child? Can Libby find peace with the hole in her heart from the loss of David?.
