Breaking up is perhaps one of the hardest feelings to overcome. In cases where men dumped their girls, the entire process of crying ones heart out and thinking why me, becomes all the more complicated and numbing for a woman. The moment a man, who still can make her heart skip a beat, walks away from her life, as a piece of glass struck with a hammer, her entire world comes crashing down into smatterings. One after the other, she falls into the various fringes of loss, confusion and anger. If you are a woman and had in the past slipped a man you loved dearly into the hands of destiny, you would well understand the hurt and pain of having to watch him leave. Suddenly doubts and the dreaded fear of rejection come creeping in. Why me Is there something wrong with me How am I to live now How soon will I be able to get out of this emotional vertigo Will I ever get over it Why is life so unfair What would people think of me...
