Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Large Print. Language: French . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Auteur: Camille Lemonnier, ne a Ixelles, Belgique le 24 mars 1844 et mort dans sa ville natale le 13 juin 1913, est un ecrivain belge particulierement fecond. Ce Brabancon, fils d un avocat wallon et d une Flamande, vint a la litterature par le detour de la critique d art. Il effectue ses etudes secondaires a l Athenee Royal de Bruxelles. Avant-propos: Ce livre a ete ecrit il y a dix ans, a peu pres jour pour jour, et presque dans le sang. Nul etonnement donc qu il soit rouge et par la forme et par le fond. Il a ete ecrit d ailleurs, comme il a ete vu, avec l horreur reflechie de la guerre. Aujourd hui qu il y a un apaisement dans les esprits, il sera considere comme une curiosite douloureuse. L auteur n entend pas raviver les plaies anciennes: les haines sont en dehors de sa pensee. Il montre simplement la guerre, telle qu elle fait les vainqueurs et les vaincus. La difference des temps le contraignait a modifier certaines vivacites de langage: le livre qui parait en 1880, a peu de modifications pres, est le meme que celui qui parut en 1870. Les rares lecteurs du livre d alors s apercevraient seulement d un scrupule litteraire plus grand. On ne saurait entourer d assez de severite l obscur hommage d un petit livre a une grande Nation.
