At Retreat sunset, civilian spectators should stand at attention and uncover during the playing of the Star Spangled Banner. Military spectators are required by Regulation to stand at attention and give the military salute. During the playing of the National Hymn at Retreat the flag should be lowered but not then allowed to touch the ground. When the National Colors are passing on parade, or in review, the spectator should if walking, halt, and if Sitting arise and stand at attention and uncover. When the National and State, or other flags fly together the National Flag should be placed on the right. When the flag is flown at half staff as a sign of mourning, it should be hoisted to full staff at the conclusion of the funeral. In placing the flag at half staff, it should first be hoisted to the top of the staff and then lowered to...
