

Starvin Marvin and Skinny Minnie Shake Up San Francisco

By Lori Sims

Outskirts Press, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Whoosh! The animal catcher's net scoops up a stray alley cat in a lonely downtown alley. Locked in a cage in the city pound van, the spunky alley cat struggles to get away. The van hits a bump on a steep San Francisco street, and the door to the alley cat's cage jiggles loose. When the van stops to pick up a stray hound dog, the alley cat makes a gutsy escape. In the middle of the night, Dan and Catrina hear noises outside their house. A burglar? Yes, it's a cold, scared, wet cat burglar cowering in a corner of their window well. Because the cat is so hungry, Dan and Catrina nickname it Starvin Marvin. The name sticks, even though they later learn the furry bundle is a female cat. They quickly fall in love with Marvin and keep her. Everyone in the neighborhood loves Marvin. Everyone except Nosy Nellie, the snoopy 82-year-old lady who lives next door. For Nellie, all cats spell trouble! The spry woman with the long, gray braid...
