Olschki, 2002. brossura. Condition: nuovo. cm. 15 x 21, 234 pp. con 10 ill. n.t. Biblioteconomia e bibliografia - Saggi e studi La fine del secolo ventesimo ha coinciso con un'attenzione crescente e una moltiplicazione di studi sulla figura e sull'opera di Clemente Rebora (Milano 1885-Stresa 1957), i cui Frammenti lirici stanno all'origine del Novecento poetico. Una prima sezione presenta la bibliografia delle opere di Rebora, con iconografia; la seconda registra cronologicamente i testi della fortuna critica del grande poeta, dal 1912 al 2001. Dettagliati indici rendono questa attesa bibliografia uno strumento di riferimento sul poeta e sul contesto poetico novecentesco italiano. The end of the twentieth century has coincided with a growing interest and an increase in studies on the figure and works of Clemente Rebora (Milan 1885 - Stresa 1957), whose lyrical fragments are at the basis of the poetical twentieth century. The first section, with illustrations, contains a bibliography of Rebora's works, the second chronologically records the texts of this great poet's critical fortune, from 1912 to 2001. Detailed indexes render this long-awaited bibliography a means of reference not only on the poet but also on the poetical context of twentieth century Italy. 328 gr. 234 p. Libro.
