Nothing in the bill that is pending before you grants the President such a unilateral power to rescind or amend the text of a duly enacted statute in the fashion that the 1996 Line Item Veto Act did. Again a deferral under H. R. 4890 can last no longer than 188 calendar days, and immediately thereafter the President is obliged to execute the spending or tax provision for which he unsuccessfully sought congressional rescission. And the Presidents discretionary authority to terminate the deferral and to execute the spending provision at issue remains in full force and effect right up until the moment that the appropriations statute itself expires under its own terms, or is rescinded by bicameral passage and pre-sentment to the President. The short of my...
