Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Inventor's Adviser, and Manufacturer's Handbook to Patents, Trade-Marks, Designs, Copyrights, Prints and Labels First: Send to my offices a disclosure of your invention for preliminary search of the Patent Office records. Cost $10. A disclosure may consist of sketches or diagrams and a description of the invention. A model is desirable, but not necessary. Immediately upon the receipt of the disclosure, I will make the preliminary examination and render my opinion concerning the invention's patentability and the exact fee required for preparing and filing the application in the Patent Office. A search is not compulsory, and if you know your invention is new you can instruct me to immediately prepare the application for patent, thereby saving time and cost of search. Second: If the invention is patentable. then remit to me the usual advance fee of $30 in ordinary cases and I will prepare the complete application papers and drawings which are sent to you for your approval and signature before filing in the Patent Office. Third: After you have approved...
