Ross, Treasurer of the Province of Ontario: Delivered on the 29th April, 1903, in the Legislative Assembly of Ontario, on Moving the House Into Committee of Supply There has been also an increase in the expenditure of 1902 on some of the more important items, which I will briefly name and pass on. In education there was an increase public institutions maintenance in agriculture hospitals and charities colonization roads Crown Lands, I mention these increases as they are 111 or nearly all on the line of expansion, on the line of opening up and developing some industry, or showing the charitable disposition of the people such as the increase to hospitals and charities. It is to be noticed that the expenditure of the Province has increased in the last few years. I suppose honourable gentlemen will point to that as an evidence of the extravagance of the Government. Expenditure is no proof of extravagance. The real test is in the Objects of that expenditure. The growth of the country necessitates an increased expenditure in many directions, as I will show presently, and the proof of the economy of the administration, its wisdom and care are to be found not in the increased amounts spent but in the uses to which the expenditure has been applied. Take for instance the first item in our estimates in which there has been a very slight increase, civil government, where the increase is That is a very small sum, having regard to the extensive civil service of the Province, as it simply means an increase of 3 1-2 percent in the aggregate...
