If the lantern went out, what would you do about it? There is no law about this, but anyh onorable person would help to safeguard the lives of other people and animals. Do you know a famous story of a boy who saved many lives and much property by stopping a hole? (They have probably all heard the story of The Little Hero of Haarlem. If not, tell it. If they have, let them tell it. The story may be found in How to Tell Stories to Children, by Sara Cone Bryant. Have the pupils memorize and recite the two Old Testament commandments used in last week s lesson and the Golden Rule. Have the class recite together the parable of the Good Samaritan.) 3 Work Period Continue work of preceding meetings: bird and squirrel-houses, community model, gifts, and poster.
