On the right-hand side is a closed golden book, inscribed with the word Biblia ; on the left is another book, open, and placed at rather a sharp angle beneath the large heart, and bearing upon its leaves the legend--All Ock Ska Din Gud N Aster (Love God and thy Neighbour). This book rests upon what appears to be a flaming torch, though to a profane imagination it is slightly suggestive of a mop. The upper portion of the cover is fully as resplendent as the lower. At each corner is a small red heart, embossed in rather high relief and set in gold From the gold frame of the left-hand heart hangs a cable to which is attached an anchor, resting on a lightgreen embossed ground, and adorned with a wreath of flowers. Below the heart on the...
