Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Pulpit and Rostrum: Sermons, Orations, Popular Lectures, C Law, some of them as novel as they were important, which had reference to the entrance or the attempted entrance of so many new states into the family of nations; in Europe - Greece, Belgium, Hungary; on this continent, twelve or fourteen new republics, great and small, bursting from the ruins of the Spanish colonial empire - like a group of asteroids from the wreck of an exploded planet; the invitation of the infant American Republic to meet them in Congress at Panama; our commercial relations with the British Colonies in the West Indies and on this continent; demands of several European states for spoliation on our commerce during the wars of the French Revolution; our secular controversy with England relative to the boundary of the United States on the North-eastern and Pacific frontiers; our relations with Mexico, previous to the war; the immunity of the American flag upon the common jurisdiction of the ocean; and more important than all other questions, foreign or domestic, in its influence upon the general politics of the country, the great sectional controversy - not then first commenced, but greatly increased in warmth and urgency, which connected itself with the organization of the newly acquired Mexican territories. Such were the chief questions on which it was Mr. Webster's duty to form Opinions; as an influential member of Congress and a political leader to speak and to vote; a member of the Executive Government to exercise a powerful, over some of them, a decisive control. Besides these there was another class of questions of great public...
