Which way to God?: How christianity wins

By Mr Daniel Mullata Abkiyyo

Daniel mullata Abkiyyo. Paperback. Condition: New. 288 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.7in. Each one of us, believe in a certain religion not by choice to begin with, but by the dictates of the dominant religion of the place we were born and the faith of our parents. But thinking of it generally, with all religions teaching contradicting things about God, and even some of them, telling us that there is no God, who is telling mankind the truth that really matters after death. As a matter of fact, any two ideas that contradict each other about the same matter, one of them must be a lie if the other is true. For example, Christianity tells the world that Jesus is God. Islam tells the world that Jesus is not God. These are two contradicting ideas about the same matter. One of them must be a lie if the other is true. This means either Islam is lying to its 1.5 billion followers or Christianity is deceiving its 2.1 billion adherents about who Jesus is. Hinduism teaches mankind that after death, we come back to life by re-incarnation and Islam and Christianity teach us that after death, we...
