Excerpt from The Congregational Year-Book, 1880: Issued, Under the Sanction of the National Council of the Congregational Churches of the United States, by Its Publishing Committee Course of Study - The first year is devoted chiefly to the Exegesis Of the Hebrew and Greek Scriptures; the second year to Systematic Theology and Church History; the third year to Sacred Rhetoric, the History Of Christian Doctrine, and Church Polity. Additional lectures on Preaching and other important subjects are delivered before all the classes by eminent ministers and scholars in this country and Europe. There are also Optional classes conducted by the Professors, in New Testament Introduction, German, Syriac, and Chaldee. Once a week there is a rhetorical exercise for all the classes. Instruction in vocal culture and elocution is continued through the entire course. Sacred music is taught to those who desire it. The Libraries of the University, to which the students have access, including the Reference Library of the Divinity School, contain nearly volumes. The Hooker Fellowship, for the encouragement of further theological study in this country or abroad, the income of which...
