

The Last Best Hope

By McBain, Ed

Condition: New. Ships From Canada. New in new dust jacket. Trade paperback (US). Glued binding. 320 p. Matthew Hope Mysteries (Paperback). Audience: General/trade. From Booklist Jill Lawton hires Florida attorney Matthew Hope, recently recovered from a coma (There Was a Little Girl, 1994), to find her husband, Jack, who's been gone a year, supposedly ""up north"" looking for work. She wants a divorce action ready when he is found. What Matthew doesn't know is that Jack Lawton is back in Calusa, Florida, planning to steal a touring Greek antiquity that will make a stop at Calusa's small but moneyed art museum. Lawton's partner in crime is Melinda Schwartz, former member of a torrid threesome with Jack and Jill. Meanwhile, Matthew has followed Jack's trail to New York, where he enlists the aid of Detective Steve Carella in the 87th precinct (McBain's other series). The plot and all the players converge on the night the Greek antiquity is to be unveiled at the Calusa museum, where Matthew finds himself.
