Hunt stands to lose his ranch, livestock, water and mining rights unless he can do something about it, and is forced to go to court to save his ranch. Hunt and his men continue to solve the problems between ranchers and settlers as they continue to arrive and stake claims to land that irritates a rancher that has used that land for years, and Hunts men come too late to save one family. Hunts men travel to Wyoming to solve a dispute between two ranchers and end up in a gun battle in a saloon where one of the ranchers sons shoots a man in the back, and then draws a gun on Bill Robertson, one of Hunts best deputies.
