Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Nothing is wrong with pride. This thought is truly overwhelming and almost inconceivable that someone will ever think Nothing Is Wrong with Being Proud. Of course someone can be proud of himself, his achievements, and a relation s performance in an event of life or for being a citizen of a great country or any prestigious place on earth and so on. But to think about nothing is wrong with pride as an attitude or attribute to a person is absurd. The Bible puts it right as it says pride goes before destruction which means indulgence in pride guarantees irreparable destiny bankruptcy. But every redeemed child of God is destined to end up in greatness. It is no surprise that most people who claim to be humble are actually proud and likewise not all actions we deem proud are actually pride. For instance, people who speak with an unusual accent are probably thought to be proud. Sometimes Rich people, prominent people and confident people are also wrongly accused to be proud. Many of these people are actually not proud. You can be rich and be Humble. You can be in a High ranking position in any organization and still be humble. You can equally be poor and still be proud. So how can we know when someone is proud or humble? And how do I deal with it so that it won t injure my glorious destiny? It is easy to say to someone Humble yourself but what is expected of him or her to prove servant-likeness humility? Is it to keep silent always, live in old house where the new ones exist? Bow when speaking? Wear old clothes? Say, please...
