Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Wesley Pierce, a Virginia State Trooper, is in search of the perfect log cabin to settle down in. After losing his brother and doing his best to care for the family he left behind Wesley decides, a year after Nathan's death, that he's finally ready to move forward. Olivia Michaels, a realtor in search of her own dream home and a way out of her parents' attic, takes on a client who can help get her that much closer to affording her freedom. Little does she know that it isn't the perfect home that she finds but through Wesley Pierce she manages to find herself. And maybe, if she's capable of taking the leap, she might even manage to find love.  This novel, not unlike its predecessor in The Rider Series, The Wanderer, is not a story about life-altering suspense and mystery or a love that seemed impossible from the very start. Instead, this story is of love in its purest form. In life it isn't mystery and excitement that drive our hearts but trepidation and the moment in which we all decide to jump unguarded into the arms of another.
