

Too Late for Regrets

By Maureen Jabour

Too Late for Regrets, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A handsome police officer and a beautiful woman meet in unlikely circumstances and fall in love. Could anything be more romantic? A straightforward tale of two people from different worlds who meet in an isolated cul-de-sac, look into each other's eyes and instantly fall in love. But wait, not so fast - there will be many twists and turns in this tale of ecstatic love and devotion. What role did fate play in determining their future? There are many what ifs to consider. What if. Elizabeth had decided to turn back from the walk before she had reached that cul-de-sac? What if. Timothy had left for his shift earlier? What if. A small boy on a bicycle had not taken a turn from the alley towards the cul-de-sac in that crucial moment? What if. Elizabeth had not accepted the commission to write a history of the Botanic Gardens? Distracted by her work on the book and all the research it entailed, she had become less vigilant in watching over Timothy's activities. Would she...
