A summer highlight for many churches is vacation Bible school. Through the years, vacation Bible school has grown and changed, adapting to cultural and societal changes. However, for some, change is hard, making it difficult to hold an effective ministry. Through the pages of this book you will learn of the history and roots of vacation Bible school. Understanding these things may help revive a sluggish ministry. Streamlining your vacation Bible school using the methods described here will help re-focus the ministry objectives and purpose your church desires: to reach boys and girls for Christ!.
