Roman and learn about this beautiful country in Central Europe. Packed with colorful illustrations, children will learn about the sights, currency, food, and even a few Hungarian words. This critically acclaimed series has been embraced by children, parents, and educators. Deceptively simple, it is jam packed with a vast array of information to ignite any child s interest in the world around them. IfYou Were Me and Lived in.India- Five Stars ForeWord Review Roman s IfYou Were Me books have a simple, winning formula: portray children from other countries and explain how familiar items and customs are the same, and how they differ, in the country being discussed. The appeal of Roman s IfYou Were Me series is that this information is not offered in the bland style of an encyclopedia entry, but rather as part of a tour of real life in India.It s this organic conversational tone that keeps the book interesting and inspires kids own curiosity for other cultures. Peter Dabbene The Foreword Review In Roman s latest...
