Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from What Shall We Do With the Sunday School as an Institution This booklet was prepared and delivered as an essay before the New York Methodist Episcopal Preachers Meeting, a body of about two hundred ministers, mostly pastors. It has also been called for as an address before certain Sunday-School conventions. The discussions it has called forth have been encouraging, and votes have been passed requesting its publication, with a view to further discussion of the important subject which it barely enters upon. In the hope that, if hammered enough, it may prove a serviceable wedge to the further opening up of a matter, of vital importance to the churches, it is respectfully offered for the friendly consideration of fellow-pastors and Christian laborers. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at This book is a reproduction of an important historical work. Forgotten Books uses state-of-the-art technology to digitally reconstruct the work, preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy.
