

Puccini's La Boheme: La Boheme Libretto (Italian/English) (Paperback)

By Giacomo Puccini

Dover Publications Inc., United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Next to Verdi's Aida, Giacomo Puccini's La Boheme is the most popular opera ever written. Performances of Aida, La Boheme, Carmen, and Don Giovanni -- the four operas most often performed -- constitute approximately 75 percent of the yearly schedule of operas throughout the world. This volume contains everything the opera goer needs to derive full satisfaction from La Boheme except the musical score itself. Most important, it provides the complete text of the Italian libretto, just as it is actually sung; that is, where a singer repeats a phrase several times, each of the repetitions is given here. And facing the Italian text is a completely new translation of the libretto into modern, idiomatic English. In addition to the libretto and English translation, this edition provides a careful, concise summary of the plot of La Boheme and a complete list of the opera's characters. There is also a brief, highly informative introduction by the translator that traces Puccini's masterpiece back to its source in Henry Murger's autobiographical novel La Vie Boheme, illuminating the early history of the opera and...
