ISSUE 1 book.

Cuvillier Verlag Feb 2011, 2011. Taschenbuch. Condition: Neu. Neuware - This Journal examines the state of African developments since independence. It compares the past and the present and addresses the issues systematically. Most of the materials in this Journal were based on other activists and IAHAC interventions on issues relating to Human Right abuses. Some of the materials were also collected from already existing journals and issues on Africa affairs especially from the UN point of view. The Journal dwells on the role of leaders with special emphasis on some countries as well as the role of individuals in various countries' development. The materials in this Journal critically reviewed the factors hindering Africa's development and encouraged leaders to take meaningful steps forward, after fifty years of independence. The materials in this Journal are written by several human rights activists and intellectuals from different academic domains. This Journal will be useful for individuals and academic institutions whose role is to promote democracy in both developed and developing countries. It is our aim that readers understand the effects of good governance, political change in various African countries and the problems affecting food insecurity in the continent. 162 pp. Englisch.
