Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Planning of Meals, Vol. 11 What shall we eat? What shall we drink? Wherewithal shall we be clothed? These are ever-present questions for the housekeeper. Comparatively few people recognize the very great importance to the welfare of the family and of society that attaches to the answer that is made to these questions. Indeed, the housekeeper herself often has very little conception of the importance of her work from the standpoint of health and efficiency. As one has said, billions of money are spent by women for food, without any knowledge of the economic principles involved, in a way that would not be tolerated in any other business enterprise. The business of housekeeping is really big business, whether one considers the capital invested or the health and efficiency of the individuals concerned. How to secure a suitable food supply for the family, for the nation, is a live question that taxes the ingenuity alike of producer and consumer, of rich and poor, of legislator and statesman. It is quite time that the woman responsible...
