Petrea Burchard, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Praise for Act As If This book is a must for anyone thinking of taking Hollywood by storm. Petrea is an insightful, delightful and enlightening author who can point out common pitfalls while throwing in a dash of empowerment. It's your life, your career. Keep your eyes open and be sure to have this book on your nightstand. -Liz Hanley, Theatrical Agent-Bicoastal Talent As a television writer who lives behind the camera, Act As If holds great life and work lessons for people in the arts-or out of them, for that matter. Who hasn't tried to impress a hero in a meeting, for a job you want or a part you know is perfect for you, and then whiffed it in a way that makes you pound your head on your steering wheel in the parking lot? (David Mamet essay, I'm looking at you.) Act As If is worth reading, keeping in your car on the way to auditions. and laughing over with the recognition that what we do in the arts is crazy, improbable, and sometimes discouraging-and that we are among the luckiest people on earth. -Kat Likkell-TV writer/producer, My Name is Earl, Better Off Ted, Galavant All graduating MFA students who want to make a living in The Biz should be handed this book with their diploma to give them a realistic view of the business they want to pursue. It's an honest, practical and remarkably uncynical look at the job of being an actor. Some of the stories are tough life lessons and some make you laugh out loud. I would recommend that young actors get the book and then re-read it every five years. -Rick...
