AT THE DEBT CROSSROADS: PROTECTING YOURSELF FROM CREDITORS (PAPERBACK)DOWNLOAD

Shalimar Publishing House, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Are your finances starting to mount? Struggling with debt? Get real life advice from consumer bankruptcy attorney Lorena Saedi, founder of a top consumer bankruptcy law firm and featured radio and TV consumer law and bankruptcy expert. Lorena has met with thousands of people facing almost every type of debt issue. Although some need to file for bankruptcy protection, Lorena is able to help many clients avoid bankruptcy and set-up a financial restructure plan. People struggling with debt have fewer options today because of the state of the economy: loan modifications are a disaster or unavailable for many and creditors are taking more aggressive action against consumers than in the past. You need an up-to-date guide that can help you assess options, find help, discover opportunities, and take action that works. Lorena Saedi's At the Debt Crossroads: Protecting Yourself From Creditors is that guide. Lorena reveals why most conventional wisdom about debt and repayment of debt is just completely wrong. Whether you've lost a job, recently become ill, or going through a divorce, having creditor's constant bombardment can become debilitating and wreak havoc with your ability to make good decisions. This is not a book about managing your money. There are already many great resources out there, and that's what financial professionals are for. This book addresses what you need to do before you take any action at protecting yourself or resolving your debt with your creditors. You'll learn: - Questions you need to ask prior to making any major decisions and meeting with professionals - What to expect through different stages of delinquency - Things you need to know ahead of time if you...
