TIERRA SIN REY (PAPERBACK)

Ediciones Nowtilus, S.L., Spain, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: Spanish . Brand New Book. MENCIÓN DE HONOR del Premio Internacional de Novela Histórica Ciudad de Zaragoza 2012 MEJOR THRILLER HISTÓRICO 2012 según la web Novelas Históricas Por su anterior novela El escalón 33 En los primeros años del S. XIII un ejército a las órdenes del Papa reprimirá duramente una herejía en territorio cristiano, la respuesta del rey de Aragón desembocará en una batalla que cambiará el destino de Europa. En el S. XIII los ejércitos de la Primera Cruzada fueron convocados por el Papa para luchar, por primera vez contra un rey cristiano, la excusa, acabar con la herejía cátara, el objetivo real, destruir el sueño de la Gran Corona de Aragón. Tierra sin rey revive este apasionante capítulo de la historia de España: un rey que tuvo que decidir entre su religión y sus vasallos, asedios sangrientos como el de Carcasone o el de Montségur, épicas batallas como la de Las Navas de Tolosa o la de Muret y un grupo religioso que hizo temblar el poder de Papa, se mezclan en una historia vibrante y llena de héroes. Luis Zueco divide la historia en dos planos para dar cuenta de los aspectos épicos, religiosos, sociales y afectivos de la historia. Sólo desde la proliferación de personajes se puede narrar fielmente este período convulso. Destacan la historia de amor entre un campesino franco metido a cruzado y una joven cátara, las aventuras de un espía aragonés y de una dama guerrera occitana y, sobre todo la trama que envuelve a los personajes históricos como el rey Pedro II, el papa Inocencio III, el sanguinario Simon de Montfort y el ambicioso obispo Arnaldo de Almalarico, el estilo impecable del autor consigue que cobren vida ante nosotros. Razones para comprar la obra:- La obra descubre a...
