Yasmin Chohan, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Kidney failure affects the lives of thousands of people around the world. Whilst dialysis provides a lifeline, it does not guarantee a healthy and long life. Transplantation is the better option. But, there is shortage of donors all around the world. This is a true account of a young man s desperate journey to end the misery of dialysis and; to simply stay alive. Finding himself amidst the organ trade, he meets people from all sides. The memoir provides an Insight into: why some people would want to buy a kidney; what drove people to sell their body parts; and who were behind the black market for organs?.
