

The Legend of Alexandros: Belen (Paperback)

By MR A C Hernandez

Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In the twenty-two years since Mabruk, Belen Alexandros father and leader of the race of men, joined his people with the races of Amazons, Centaurs, and Lycans to destroy the marauding goblins and imprison the Goblin King deep in their mountain home, the people of the village of Souvaolo have known only peace and abundance. But unbeknownst to them all, the Goblin King has returned, bent on destroying the world. And now, their only hope lies unconscious on the merchant road, unable to warn them of the coming onslaught. A wildly imaginative world steeped in magic, mythical creatures, and legendary heroes, A. C. Hernandez s debut pits the forces of good against those of evil in a pitched battle for supremacy that fuses the fantastic with the gothic in a fast paced and blood soaked tale of vengeance. When Belen regains consciousness he finds that he is too late: his village has been burned to the ground and his family murdered. Swearing revenge, he embarks on a quest to kill the Goblin King. Joined by the escaped princess Elora, the powerful wizard Alistair,...
