In Barcelona, Anthony de Luca, an author and photographer, unleashes the full force of his charm that threatens to steal her heart, a prize he openly admits he doesn't want. Still, she can't resist him, and finds herself experiencing the heights of ecstasy and the lows of heartbreak as her lover leaves without a word. In Berlin, Paul Christiansen, a handsome Dutch Lothario with a sordid past, works his wiles to seduce her body; while in the shadows, a predator stalks a young boy close to Sarah determined to get what he wants or kill anyone who gets in his way. One of these two men has led a dangerous criminal straight to her door, but which one? And who can she trust? When the boy goes missing, Sarah must put her trust into both, laying her own life on the line to save an innocent from a monster straight out of a nightmare.
