Misconceptions of Hell (Paperback)

By Michael Essington

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Misconceptions of Hell is a collection of short stories by Michael Essington, published in 2016. The collection deals largely with drinking, women, gambling, and writing. It is an important collection that establishes Essington's minimalist style and his thematic oeuvre. Misconceptions of Hell is comprised of seven stories and twenty-one poems. All dealing with themes of hell on Earth, noir with a twist of the supernatural. Editorial Reviews Review When Michael sent me the first chapter (Bo Herne) of Misconceptions Of Hell to review, I intended to sift through it quickly and say something good before going to bed. I ended up being sucked into the story and was thoroughly immersed to the end. The characters were instantly familiar, the story short (I always hate when great stories end), yet rich and full. It's the kind of short story that can easily adapt into a full-length film (wink, wink). I await anxiously to read the remainder of what looks to be Mr. Essington's finest writing yet.
