The New Testament Church is designed for use in adult, university, and high school Bible classes as well as personal study. Dr. Ferguson discusses the biblical passages pertaining to the church--its origin, nature, membership, life, worship, work, and organization. These topics are placed in the context of Old Testament expectations and the anticipation of heavenly fulfillment. Dr. Ferguson's approach is to relate the characteristics of the church to its head, Christ. The result presents the practical values of the doctrinal study of Scripture.
